From: Sandro Spiteri, Head of QA Unit	Date: 24 th November 2014	Comm. No.: 31/2014

Dear colleagues

Further to QA Communication 01/2013 issued on the 17th December 2013 on 'Use of Specific Wording and NCFHE Logo by Licensed Further and Higher Education Institutions', you may wish to note that the NCFHE logo and approved text may ONLY be used in publicity and other information material that EXCLUSIVELY relates to courses that are duly accredited or recognised by the NCFHE, or events thereof.

Publicity and information material, included in the electronic media, that give the impression by commission, omission or proximity, that a course that is not accredited or recognised by the NCFHE has in some way the approval or recognition of the NCFHE is in contravention with licence conditions, and may lead to the necessary action being taken.
